ABOUT ME

My legal education has not been confined to a classroom. Across six internships, spanning a Tier 1 corporate firm, the chamber of a Special Public Prosecutor for CBI and ED, and litigation practices at the Allahabad High Court and Delhi courts, I have drafted corporate documents, researched complex regulatory frameworks, and observed high-stakes proceedings firsthand. I am a BBA LL.B. candidate at Amity University who understands that great firms are built on the quality of their people's thinking.
